St. James's, June 7.

THE following Addreſs of the Governour, Council, and Aſſembly of the Province of Georgia, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Governour, Council, and Aſſembly of your Majeſty's Province of Georgia, in this diſtant Part of your Dominions, take the earlieſt Opportunity of preſenting to your Majeſty their moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations on the joyful, important, and intereſting Event of an Heir being born to the Crown and Dignities of your Realms; added to the Bleſſings of a Safe and Honourable Peace, the Reſult of an indiſpenſible and juſt War againſt your Majeſty's Enemies; which, through the Divine Favour, has been, beyond Compare, ſucceſsful and glorious, ſuch as reſounds, and will perpetuate the Praiſe of your Majeſty's great Name, the Wiſdom of your Government, the vigorous Execution of your Commands by your Majeſty's intrepid and gallant Officers, both by Sea and Land, and the Bravery of thoſe undaunted Men acting under them.

That the Almighty may be pleaſed, during a long Life, to beſtow every private and publick Felicity on your Majeſty and your Royal Son; and that the young Prince may live to be a Bleſſing to his Royal Father, inheriting His Wiſdom and Virtues; and in future Time may, as He is now, be juſtly revered by his Subjects, tranſmitting to the lateſt Poſterity, his illuſtrious Example, and the Appellation of the beſt of Sovereigns; ſwaying the Sceptre amidſt the Acclamations of a moſt grateful, free, and happy People, are the truly cordial Wiſhes, and zealous Hopes, of your Majeſty's very dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Francis Reynolds, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with all becoming Acknowledgments to your Majeſty, for reſtoring to us the Bleſſings of Peace.

The Wiſdom of your Majeſty, that accompliſhed the ſame, and the Senſe of the great Council of the Nation, in Parliament aſſembled, in Approbation thereof, is a convincing Teſtimony of its having been thought adequate to the many great and unexampled Succeſſes obtained by the Arms of your Majeſty, and your renowned Predeceſſor, during the Courſe of a long, bloody and expenſive War.

With the Return of Peace from Abroad, we hope and truſt in your Majeſty's Paternal Care, to ſee Tranquility firmly eſtabliſhed at Home; and make no Doubt but your Majeſty's well-known and impartial Regard to all your Subjects, will totally extinguiſh the Heats and Animoſities which have been induſtriouſly fomented and encouraged.

That your Majeſty's Concern for the Good of the Publick may moſt effectually unite the Minds of your Subjects; that the good Effects of Peace may not be obſtructed by any inteſtine Diviſions; and that your Majeſty may long, very long, rule over theſe Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a free and willing People, is the moſt ardent Wiſh of us your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town of Lancaſter, this 25th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants trading to and from the Port of Liverpool, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Meredith, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for Liverpool, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants trading to and from the Port of Liverpool.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Merchants trading to and from the Port of Liverpool, moſt humbly deſire Permiſſion to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy and ſalutary Concluſion of the late War. A War, attended with unparalleled Succeſs and Glory; but carried on at a boundleſs Expence of the Blood and Treaſure of your People.

To reſtore the Bleſſings of Peace to ſo many Nations, that were over-run with the Calamities of War, is an Event in which human Nature itſelf is intereſted; and muſt fill your Royal Breaſt with the more perfect Joy and Satisfaction, as you poſſeſs, in ſo eminent a Degree, that Grace, Benevolence, and Rectitude of Mind, which inclined your Majeſty to prefer the Eaſe and Safety of your Subjects, with the General Tranquillity of Europe, to the Extent and Splendor of Victories. The Proſperity of Great Britain muſt ariſe from the Care and Cultivation of her Trade and Commerce: We therefore, as Commercial mercial People, beg Leave, in an eſpecial Manner, to expreſs our Gratitude to your Majeſty, for that Inſtance of your Paternal Regard for, and entire Knowledge of the true Intereſt of your Country, in recommending it to the Attention of Parliament, ſo to ſettle our late extenſive Conqueſts, that they may become new Sources for our Trade and Manufactures.

Permit us likewiſe to acknowledge your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in that Syſtem of National Œconomy, which you have commanded to be eſtabliſhed. For the Encouragement of Trade and Manufactures muſt greatly depend on their being eaſed (comparatively at leaſt, with other Nations) in point of Taxes and Impoſitions, which can only be effected by ſuch a frugal and prudent Adminiſtration of the Publick Revenues, as your Majeſty has been pleaſed repeatedly to enjoin.

Happy as we think ourſelves under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, our Hope and Prayer is, that you may always be ſurrounded by good and able Miniſters, to execute your gracious Deſigns for the Honour and Happineſs of your Subjects; that the illuſtrious Example of your own particular Virtue may have its due influence on the Minds and Manners of us all; and that you may long live, and reign in the Hearts of a dutiful and united, a loyal and free People.

The following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Profeſſors, and Regents, of the King's College and Univerſity of Old Aberdeen, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. James Stewart Mackenzie, Eſq; : Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Profeſſors, and Regents, of the King's College and Univerſity of Old Aberdeen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Profeſſors, and Regents, of the King's College and Univerſity of Old Aberdeen, humbly preſume to offer to your Majeſty our moſt cordial Congratulations upon the Bleſſings of Peace being reſtored by your Royal Wiſdom, to your Majeſty's Dominions, after a moſt exhauſting, as well as ſucceſsful War. We likewiſe humbly congratulate your Majeſty upon the conſequential Re eſtabliſhment of the general Peace of Europe, worn out with Bloodſhed.

We earneſtly pray, that the ſame Unanimity amongſt your Subjects, which contributed ſo much to the Glory of the War, may gratefully cooperate with your Majeſty's Wiſdom, to improve the Advantages of a Peace, which has given Security to your Majeſty's former Dominions, has acquired new Sources of Commerce and Wealth to them, and has empowered your Majeſty to communicate the Bleſſings of your Government to an immenſe Extent of new acquired Territory.

As a Seminary of Learning, along with the Sciences and Arts of Peace, we will indefatigably inculcate upon the Minds of your Majeſty's young Subjects under our Care, thoſe Principles of Duty and Loyalty to your Majeſty, and of good Will to all the Subjects of the Britiſh Empire, that may make their Acquiſitions in Learning uſeful to the State. We will enforce our Precepts of every Virtue, and of every Part of uſeful and ornamental Knowledge, by your Majeſty's Royal Example, the moſt effectual Means to form the Character of your Subjects.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy an happy Reign, and continue a Bleſſing to a grateful, united People, is the ardent Wiſh of this Univerſity.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Univerſity, May 23, 1763, by Deskfoord, Chancellor.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies, Dean of Gild, and other Members of the Council of Haddington, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. James Stewart Mackenzie, Eſq; Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies, Dean of Gild, and other Members of the Council of Haddington, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Baillies, Dean of Gild, and other Members of the Council of Haddington, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty on this important Occaſion, with our hearty Congratulations for the amazing Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms both by Sea and Land, during the late War; and with our Hearts filled with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude, we return our unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty for your gracious Concern for the Welfare of your People, in putting an End to that bloody and expenſive War, by an honourable and Advantageous Peace; advantageous even beyond our warmeſt Expectations.

But while we thus teſtify our grateful Thanks to your Majeſty for the Bleſſings of that Peace which we now enjoy, we cannot but at the ſame Time expreſs our juſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the late infamous and licentious Practices of ſome low Tools of Faction, whereby they would endeavour to vilify and depreciate that Peace, which has been honoured with the Sanction and Approbation of the Great Council of the Nation, and to raiſe a Flame at Home, when the Flames of War are extinguiſhed Abroad.

That your Majeſty, as the Darling of the Nation, and the Terror of Faction and Licentiouſneſs, may long live to ſee the Bleſſings of Peace flouriſh under your mild and auſpicious Government; and that you may always reign in the Hearts of a free and loyal People, is, and ever ſhall be, our earneſt Prayer.

This done in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, and ſubſcribed by Haddington, May 23, 1763. Ja. Lundie, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heretors, of the County of Haddington, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. James Stewart Mackenzie, Eſq; : Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heretors, of the County of Haddington.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heretors, of the County of Haddington, with Hearts full of Gratitude, beg Leave to join with the general Voice of all your loyal and well-affected Subjects, in congratulating your Majeſty on the unexampled Succeſs of your Arms in all Parts of the World, both by Sea and Land, by which the Pride of your Enemies has been effectually humbled, and the Glory of the Britiſh Name raiſed to a Pitch unknown to our Anceſtors, and even beyond our moſt ſanguine Expectations, and by which, after a long and expenſive War, Peace has at laſt been concluded upon Terms more Honourable and more Advantageous to Great Britain, than had ever been obtained at any former Period, and every Way adequate to the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms.

The juſt Senſe we have of theſe manifold and important Advantages cannot be ſhaken by the Attempts of of a few, who may build their Expectations of private Advantage on the Troubles of Faction and publick Disorder: And we are firmly perſuaded, that on this important Occaſion, we expreſs the prevailing Sentiments of all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

That the ſame Wiſdom, which has hitherto directed your Majeſty's Councils during the moſt difficult and perilous Operations of War, may continue with equal Succeſs to direct them to promote the Arts, and diffuſe the Bleſſings of Peace; and that your Majeſty may continue long to reign with Luſtre and Dignity over the grateful Hearts of a free and happy People, truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, is our moſt earneſt Wiſh and conſtant Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Haddington, this 23d of May, 1763.

Elibank, Præſes.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Pontefract, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Pontefract, Beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Peace, and to expreſs our ſincere Satisfaction in ſeeing the Glory of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Commercial Intereſts of your People, happily eſtabliſhed upon the ſureſt Foundation.

We rejoice to ſee the Public Welfare, and your Majeſty's Private Felicity, continually advanced by true Wiſdom and unſhaken Virtue: And it is our moſt ardent Wiſh, that your Majeſty, after triumphing over all your Foreign Enemies, may long enjoy the Fruits of Peace; and that all Attempts to diſturb the Public Tranquillity, and to undermine your Majeſty's Repoſe, may be as ineffectual as they are ungenerous and ungrateful.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Twentieth Day of May, in the Third Year of your Majeſty's moſt glorious Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Comburgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and Clergy, living in and near the Borough of Grantham, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Comburgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and Clergy, living in and near the Borough of Grantham in the County of Lincoln.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Comburgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen and Clergy, beg Leave to ſhew a Senſe of our Happineſs, and to ſend our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's moſt kind Concluſion of a long, expenſive calamitous War, by a Safe and Honourable Peace. We cannot but eſteem it the peculiar Happineſs of our Days, to have a King on the Throne, that far from being dazzled with the Pomp and Glory of numerous Triumphs, hath nothing ſo much at Heart as the Quiet and Proſperity of his Kingdoms; and we ſhall ever remember your Majeſty's Tenderneſs and Goodneſs to theſe Nations, in putting an happy Period to a diſtreſsful War in the midſt of your many Glorious Victories.

May Divine Providence long, very long, preſerve your Majeſty, the beloved Sovereign of an united, dutiful, affectionate People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leiceſter.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of your faithful Borough of Leiceſter, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations, on your having terminated a bloody and expenſive, though Glorious and Succeſsful War, by a Treaty highly Honourable to yourſelf, and Advantageous to your Subjects.

To vanquiſh his own and his People's Enemies, is the diſtinguiſhed Part of the Character of a great Prince; nor is it leſs ſo to be deaf to the Calls of Ambition, to be able to ſtop in the Career of Victory, and to grant Peace to thoſe vanquiſhed Enemies when they ſue for it on equitable Terms. Both theſe Praiſes are your Majeſty's peculiar Due; nor is it eaſy to foreſee, whether the Glories of your Arms or the Humanity of your Mind will be moſt the Admiration of future Ages. The former will not fail to excite the Wonder of great Warriors, while the latter will win the Eſteem and Veneration of all good Men.

From the double Motive of Duty and of Gratitude, we make it our daily and fervent Prayer to the Almighty, that your Majeſty may long enjoy the Fruits of that happy Repoſe which you have magnanimouſly given to Mankind; that the Arts of Peace may flouriſh under your benign Influence; that Benevolence may be diffuſed through all Nations by your great Example; and that your illuſtrious Progeny may reign over our lateſt Deſcendants with Glory to themſelves, and with Happineſs and Proſperity to a brave, loyal, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guild-hall of the ſaid Borough, the Sixteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Stirling, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Vice-Admiral Holburne, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Stirling.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Baillies and Council of Stirling, preſume to offer our humble Duty to your Sacred Majeſty, by expreſſing our juſt Senſe of your affectionate Care for the Welfare of your Kingdoms, ſignally diſplayed, in conducting the late happy Event, which promiſes the greateſt Proſperity to your Subjects.

A Peace truly advantageous to Britain, and glorious to your Majeſty, having ſheathed the devouring Sword, in granting Peace not to Europe only, but to the other Quarters of the Globe, and put an End to a conſuming, though moſt ſucceſsful War.

The Tranquility Abroad being thus happily reſtored on ſolid Terms, approved by the Great Council of the Nation, it gives us the utmoſt Concern to find, that the wiſe Meaſures of your Majeſty and Council are traduced and miſrepreſented by any Britiſh Subject, to the Miſleading of the Multitude. The Inſult and Abuſe of Majeſty, and Endeavours to inflame and divide, by odious Diſtinctions, thoſe Nations ſo ſtrictly united by the ſtrong Ties of Duty and Intereſt, is a Conduct that muſt be highly diſ-approved of by every loyal and grateful Heart to the beſt of Sovereigns, and who wiſh well to their Country.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we heartily condemn all ſuch malevolent Proceedings, and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, encourage and countenance that Spirit of Loyalty and Reſpect to your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, and Conformity to the Laws, which becometh good Subjects.

May your Majeſty always be under the Heavenly Protection, the Darling of the People, and the Patron of Liberty and of Peace.

Done at the City of Stirling aforeſaid, in the Council-Room, and appointed to be ſigned in our Name, by our Præſes, the Twenty-fifth Day of May, 1763 Years.
